- stated that the committee has agreed to meet eight hours, twice a week, and in the near future full time. He says that he cannot possibly devote this amount of time due to other commitments. I pointed out that the CIG is not committed to full-time, but they were morally obligated to take an active part in the activities. He agreed that it was essential that CIG maintain strong representation. He will talk to and suggest in writing to us one of two alternatives:
  - Full-time representation be provided by 080 as soon as they can hire a full-time expert.
  - Pull-time representation to be provided by "CIG Front Office" (probably ICAPS).
